THE HATHAWAY BIOGRAPHY 2019

We started herding in 1989 with our first dog, Timber. And soon discovered that the upstanding dog trainers available needed much to be desired; so, we bought our own sheep and learned how to do it. Through the nineties we learned a lot about herding. We learned that there are good trial dogs and that there are good working dogs; that there are ways to win and ways to work stock. Somewhere in there Timber became the fourth Belgian Tervuren to achieve HC status.

Our first student came to us and we tried to impart to her and the group that followed the things that we had learned. Our emphasis was on training the herding teams how to succeed...and how to win. We also developed a method of training to aid all of us in this endeavor.

In 2000 our “proof of concept” dog was born, Utah. We trained him from the ground up with all that we had learned. And it worked. Utah, at 26 months, became the youngest HC in the Belgian world. He was also the #1 herding Terv in 2003 (ABTC rankings), a feat which he duplicated in 2012 at the age of 12. His son, Zion, has continued in his footsteps getting his HC at 28 months and he’s been the top dog twice out of his four years.

In the past 30 years we have trained and handled everything from a Bearded Collie to a Catahoula and most of the breeds in between. We have put Herding Championships on Malinois, Tervuren and Border Collies; ten HCs all together.

We became herding judges in 1994 to give something back to the sport we love. As judges we look for good stock work; work that you would like to see on your own farm dealing with your stock. We aren’t concerned overly much about “style” as long as it gets the job done in a satisfactory fashion. When asked a question about our judging we usually can answer, “Have you read the rule book?” That is how we judge, by the book.

We’re looking forward to judging your national specialty and I hope all of you have a good time working with your furry friends. When it comes down to it, win or lose, Q or NQ, it’s all about having a good time and enjoying each other.

Sean Hathaway, January 2018
